PREFACE.

IN the Preface to the First Volume, some account was given of the Register Books of the Parish of Bruton, from 1554 to 1812. It may be useful if the description there given of the books printed in this volume be repeated :—

No. 3 (14½ ins. by 6½ ins.), 120¾ leaves of parchment :

Marriages	1681 to 1745.
Baptisms	1681 to 1769.
Burials	1681 to 1745.

No. 4. Marriages (14½ ins. by 9 ins.). Containing 4 leaves of parchment (14½ ins. by 6¾ ins.), with entries from 1746 to 1754, bound up with the printed paper Register, 1754 to 1812.

No. 5. Baptisms (14 ins. by 9¼ ins.). Containing 16 leaves of parchment (12 ins. by 8½ ins.), 1770 to 1783, together with the printed paper Register that continues the record to 1812.

No. 6. Burials (16 ins. by 9½ ins.). 24 leaves of parchment (16 ins. by 6¾ ins.), 1746 to 1783, together with the printed paper Register from 1783 to 1812.

The Registers are in good condition, Nos. 4, 5, and 6 having been rebound in 1833, during the incumbency of the Rev. S. H. Cassan.

THE HOSPITAL or ALMSHOUSE referred to on page 133 and passim was founded by Hugh Sexey, who from a poor boy living at Discove (in the parish of Bruton) worked himself up to the position of Auditor of the Imprest under Queen Elizabeth and King James I. During his lifetime he conveyed certain manors and estates to Sir Laurence Hyde and others upon trust that such estates should be employed for certain charitable uses to benefit his native town of Bruton. After his death in 1619, the Trustees founded (in 1638) an almshouse, or hospital, for twelve old people and a school in connection with it for the education for three years and then the apprenticing of twelve boys. This Hospital still exists, and is now the home of thirty-three old people. The Boys' School ceased in 1877, and a school for training girls for domestic service was founded in its place. This is now in its turn to be replaced by a School of Domestic Subjects.

THE FREE SCHOOL, or GRAMMAR SCHOOL, now called the King's School, was founded in 1519 by Richard FitzJames, successively Bishop of Rochester, Chichester, and London, John FitzJames, and Dr. John Edmondes, Chancellor of St. Paul's Cathedral, and re-founded in 1551. Considerable additions have from time to time been made to the original building, and the School is now a flourishing institution, with accommodation for about sixty-five boys.

In 1783 an Act of Parliament was passed called the STAMP ACT, under which a tax of threepence was imposed upon every entry in the Parish Register. The Parson was to collect this tax at the time of the baptism, marriage, or burial, and was to receive two shillings a year for his trouble. The registration of persons buried at the sole expense of any charity (e.g., the Almshouse) was not to be taxed, nor presumably (though it is not so defined in the Act) of persons buried at the expense of the parish. Hence the designation "poor," attached to so many entries from 1783 (see p. 316). This extremely unpopular Act was repealed in the year 1794.

One curious custom may be noted from the Registers—the burial of members of the BERKELEY family (the lords of the manor) at midnight, when a sermon was preached by the minister of Bruton. When the chancel was pulled down and rebuilt in 1743 (see p. 203), the remains in the crypt beneath were taken out and re-buried in the churchyard. The tombstone bears this record:—

“Pulvis et ossa sumus ! Cadaverum antehac jacentium in ossuario sub adyto hujusce ecclesiæ, sub hoc marmore conditæ jussu Honorabilis C. Berkeley, 1743.” This crypt then became the burial place of the Berkeley family.

The present transcript of these Registers has been made by Mrs. D. L. Hayward, and the proofs have been carefully collated with the original Registers by the Editor. The Index is the work of Miss E. Hobday.

DOUGLAS L. HAYWARD.

A Digest of the Parish Registers

WITHIN THE DIOCESE OF WORCESTER,

Issued by the Committee of Parish Registers,

By Authority of the WORCESTER DIOCESAN CONFERENCE.

This Digest has been prepared under the direction of a Committee appointed at the Diocesan Conference, held at Birmingham, in 1896, and has been completed from the original Returns supplied by the Incumbents of the Parishes within the Diocese. The dates when each Volume of Registers commence and end, the number of leaves, material on which they are written, and the size and general condition, are all clearly stated under each parish.

Added to all this useful information is a table showing for what years in every parish the Bishops' Transcripts, previous to 1700, are now in existence in Edgar Tower, Worcester.

As only a limited number of copies has been printed, early application is necessary to secure a copy.

A Supplement to How to Write the History of a Family,

By W. P. W. PHILLIMORE, M.A., B.C.L.

The First and Second Editions have been long since quite exhausted.
Much additional information of practical value has been gathered together since the handbook was issued, and this has been put together in the form of a separate supplement, so that it may be available for the possessors of each edition. The supplement matches the original work.

It contains amongst other matter a Chapter for Beginners, Chapters on Scotch and Irish Genealogy and Records, which have been revised by Lyon King of Arms, Ulster King of Arms, and the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records, Ireland, and revised Lists of Probate Registries (England, Scotland, and Ireland) and Marriage Licenses, etc.
